

ALL are invited to a free screening of Robert Reich's new movie:

Inequality for All

Debuting at the 2013 Sundance Film Festival, this film is a passionate argument on behalf of the middle class.

Inequality for All features Reich as he demonstrates how the widening income gap and the public policies that helped create it have devastated the American economy.

This screening is part of the 50 State Capital Tour funded by the Ford Foundation. All state legislators have been invited to participate and the Kent County delegation will lead a discussion after the film.

This event is hosted by Common Cause, Dover Public Library, Americans for Democratic Action, League of Women Voters of Delaware, Kent County League of Women Voters, Kent County Progressives, and Pacem in Terris.

When: Tuesday, April 1, 11 a.m.

Where: Dover Public Library, 35 Loockerman Plaza

Attendance is free
